Independent Auditor's Report (continued)To the Dear Shareholders,United Group for Land Transport Company(Public Limited Shareholding Company)*Amman – the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan*Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements:

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the ISAs that are endorsed in the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of those financial statements. As part of an audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing ("ISAs") that are endorsed in the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, Deprecations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal Control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion, our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

To the Dear Shareholders,

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determined those matters that were of most significance in the audit of financial statements of the current year and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

NOTES FORMING PART OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Financial assets

The Company classifies its financial assets into one of the categories discussed below, depending on the purpose for which the asset was acquired. The Company has not classified any of its financial assets as held to maturity.

The Company accounting policy for each category is as follows:

Loans and receivables

These assets are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. They arise principally through the provision of goods and services to customers (e.g. trade receivables), but also incorporate other types of contractual monetary asset. They are initially recognized at fair value plus transaction costs that are directly attributable to their acquisition or issue, and are subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method, less provision for impairment.

Impairment provisions are recognized when there is objective evidence (such as significant financial difficulties on the part of the counterparty or default or significant delay in payment) that the Company will be unable to collect all of the amounts due under the terms receivable, the amount of such a provision being the difference between the net carrying amount and the present value of the future expected cash flows associated with the impaired receivable. For trade receivables, which are reported net; such provisions are recorded in a separate allowance account with the loss being recognized within administrative expenses in the statement of comprehensive income. On confirmation that the trade receivable will not be collectable, the gross carrying value of the asset is written off against the associated provision.

The company recognizes a provision for all the receivables that exceeds 120 days of its maturity date.

Cash and cash equivalents includes cash in hand, deposits held at call with banks, other short term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less.

Financial liabilities

The Company classifies its financial liabilities depending on the purpose for which the liability was acquired.

The Company accounting policy for each category is as follows:

Other financial liabilities :

Trade and other credit balances

Trade payables and other short-term monetary liabilities, which are initially recognized at fair value and subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method.

Share capital

Financial instruments issued by the Company are classified as equity only to the extent that they do not meet the definition of a financial liability or financial asset. The common shares of the company are classified as equity instruments.

Employee benefits

The company's contribution to the employee benefits plan is recorded in the statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income for the relevant year.

Leased assets

Where substantially all of the risks and rewards incidental to ownership are not transferred to the company (an "operating lease"), the total rental payable under the lease are charged to the statement of comprehensive income on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost net of accumulated depreciation and any impairment loss in its value, moreover Property and Equipment (except for land) are depreciated according to the straight- line method over the estimated useful lives when ready for use of these assets using the rates:

Item	Percentage of depreciation	Item	Percentage of depreciation
- Buildings	%2	- Cars and trucks	%7-%20
- Tools	%12	- Hangers	%10
- Electrical and Office Equipment	%20	- Decorations and exterior fittings	%9-%2
- Furniture	%3-%10	- Solar Energy Systems	%10

When the carrying amount of property and equipment exceeds their recoverable value, assets are written down and impairment loss is recorded in the statement of income.

The useful lives of property and equipment are reviewed at the end of each year, in case the expected useful life is different from what was determined before the change in estimate is recorded in the following years being a change in estimates.

4) Financial instruments - risk management

The Company is exposed through its operations to the following financial risks:

- Credit risk
- Market risk
- Liquidity risk

In common with all other businesses, the Company is exposed to risks that arise from its use of financial instruments. This note describes the Company objectives, policies and processes for managing those risks and the methods used to measure them. Further quantitative information in respect of these risks is presented throughout these financial statements.

(i) Principal financial instruments

- Cash and cash equivalent
- Trade and other receivables

UNITED GROUP FOR LAND TRANSPORT COMPANY
(PUBLIC LIMITED SHAREHOLDING COMPANY)
AMMAN -JORDAN

The book value of the financial instruments mentioned above is approximately equal to their fair value.

The company's management assumes the responsibility for determining and implementing risk management objectives and policies. The overall objective is to establish policies that lead to minimizing risks to the greatest extent possible without compromising the company's flexibility and competitiveness. Below are further details about these policies:

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss to the Company if a customer or counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. The Company is mainly exposed to credit risk from credit sales, the company sell the customers with creditworthiness history on the other hand new customers are analyzed for creditworthiness before the company's standard payment and delivery terms and conditions are offered.

Credit risk also arises from cash and cash equivalents and deposits with banks and financial institutions. For banks and financial institutions, The Company deals with banks with an acceptable credit rating.

Market risk

Market risk arises from the Company use of interest bearing, tradable and foreign currency financial instruments. It is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in interest rates (interest rate risk), foreign exchange rates (currency risk) or other market factors (other price risk).

The Company is not exposed to any of the market risks in the previous paragraph due to not holding any instrument with variable interest rate, no amounts are expected to be settled in foreign currencies and the Company does not hold any equity investments in other companies.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk arises from the Company management of working capital. It is the risk that the Company will encounter difficulty in meeting its financial obligations as they fall due.

The Company policy is to ensure that it will always have sufficient cash to allow it to meet its liabilities when they become due.

Capital Disclosures

The Company monitors "adjusted capital" which comprises all components of equity (paid up capital, accumulated losses and statutory reserve).

The Company's objectives when maintaining capital are:

- To safeguard the entity's ability to continue as a going concern, so that it can continue to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders, and
- To provide an adequate return to shareholders by pricing products and services commensurately with the level of risk.

The Company manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it in the light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may adjust the amount of return capital to shareholders, issue new shares, or sell assets to reduce debt.

5) Critical accounting estimates and judgments

The Company makes certain estimates and assumptions regarding the future. Estimates and judgments are continually evaluated based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. In the future, actual experience may differ from these estimates and assumptions. The estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are discussed below.

Property and equipment

The Company reviewed the estimated useful life of property and equipment and depreciation method to verify that it reflects the used economic benefits and in case there is a difference it will be treated as changes in estimates (in the year of change and subsequent years).

Legal proceedings

The Company reviews outstanding legal cases through following the developments of the legal procedures at each reporting date, in order to assess the need of provisions and disclosures in its financial statements. Among the factors considered in making decisions on provisions are the nature of litigation, the progress of the case (including the progress after the date of the financial statements but before those statements are issued), the opinions or views of legal advisers, experience on similar cases and any decision of the Company management as to how it will respond.

Income tax

The Company is subject to income tax and significant judgment is required in determining the provision for income taxes. During the ordinary course of business, there are transactions and calculations for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain. As a result, the company recognizes tax liabilities based on estimates of whether additional taxes and interest will be due.
