The ASE Received a Student Delegation from the Al-Zaytoonah University of Jordan

January 07, 2020

Amman Stock Exchange (ASE) has received a student delagation from Business Faculty/ Accounting Dept at Al-Zaytoonah University of Jordan, within a field visit to the Amman Stock Exchange (ASE), on Tuesday, the 7th of Jan. 2020. In this respect; Dr. Malak Al- Jazzazi, from the Media and Communication Department at the ASE has delivered an presentation about the ASE score of business in addition to the recent developments and projects of the ASE, and Ms. Haneen Mubarak From Listing Department presented a brief about E-Disclosure using eXtensible Business Reporting Language (XBRL) that applied on Jordan Capital Markets institutions and the advantages of XBRL System.

At the end of the lecture, we opened questions to the students that are related to the XBRL system in particular and the ASE in general