Educational Lecture in Yarmouk University

November 16, 2022

The Amman Stock Exchange (ASE) represented by the CEO of the ASE Mr. Mazen Wathafi held a lecture at Yarmouk University entitled "Developments in the Jordanian capital market in light of the successive global crises", organized by the University's faculty of business, in the presence of the President of Yarmouk University, Prof. Dr. Islam Masad, Dean of faculty of business, Professor Michel Swidan, and the Director of the Communication and Media Department of the ASE, Mr. Amjad Al-Qudah, and a number of faculty Members and administrative staff and university students.

Where Wathaifi reviewed the most important developments, achievements and future plans of the ASE, he explained that the ASE has developed a strategic plan that includes many projects and programs with the aim of programs with the aim of developing legislative and technical frameworks in accordance with the latest international standards and practices in a way that enhances the investment climate and increases the exchange attractiveness to local and foreign investments, and among these projects: Strengthening the investment environment, and the legislative and technical environment of the exchange. Enhancing the presence of the stock exchange at the regional and international levels, developing investment awareness of securities, and achieving institutional excellence.

At the end of the lecture, Wathifi answered the questions and inquiries of the faculty members and students about everything related to the Jordanian Capital Market Institutions in general and the ASE in particular. The University provided a commemorative shield in appreciation of the information provided during this lecture.

It is worth mentioning that the holding of such lectures comes within the framework of the ASE's policy, social responsibility and its desire to deepen its relationship with universities and its endeavor to promote investment knowledge and culture in all matters related to the Jordanian capital market and investment in securities.

