

Article (5)

The Broker must provide sufficient funds necessary to confront and meet its financial obligations arising from dealings in securities in accordance with the provisions of these directives.