Market Segmentations

Secondary Market	The market through which securities are traded in accordance with the provisions of laws, regulations and directives in force.
First Market	That part of the secondary Market through which trading takes place in securities, governed by special listing rules according to Directives for Listing Securities on Amman Stock Exchange.
Second Market	That part of the secondary Market through which trading takes place in securities, governed by special listing rules according to Directives for Listing Securities on Amman Stock Exchange.
The Over-The-Counter market	that part of the secondary market through which trading in unlisted shares and the subscription rights issued, there under, takes place in accordance with these Directives.
Bonds Market	That part of the secondary Market through which trading in government bonds and corporate bonds takes place.
Right Issues' Market	That part of the secondary market through which right issues listed on the Stock Exchange are traded.
Transactions off the Trading Floor	That part of the secondary Market through which inheritance and inter-family transactions takes place.

Source URl:

https://exchange.jo/en/print/pdf/node/985